Group Descriptions, July 2017

Emotional Groups

Approximately 28 emotional groups are designed to aid our members with establishing their own ability to cope and understand themselves, while addressing the overall member goals related to advocacy and recovery.

Art Workshop – This is an open art class, and members can explore various / different mediums of art of their choosing; or follow the facilitators planned special project.

Arts and Crafts – Members use expressive art and art appreciation techniques to create insightful and fun projects.

Balance and Boundaries – Members can explore steps to establishing and maintaining healthy boundaries.

Best I Can Be – This class offers an exploration into bringing out the full potential of the individual through attitude and conceptual adjustments; opening ourselves to new possibilities and achieving our own brand of excellence.

Crochet - Members learn and teach each other the process of creating fabric by interlocking loops of yarn, thread, or strands of other materials using a crochet hook.

Choir – This class offers an opportunity for members to sing fun/popular songs and perform at various events in the community.

Day to Day Living - This group offers tips and suggestions so that members can take things one day at a time during their journey to recovery.

DBSA (Depression, Bipolar Support Alliance) - DBSA provides hope, help, support, and education to improve the lives of people who have mood disorders.

Did You Know? – A multifaceted approach to general topics such as time, love, etc. utilizing a variety of modalities. Academic subjects such as philosophy, biology and physics are discussed.

Diversity – This group provides a safe and supportive environment for members to discuss feelings of being different and unique while exploring coping techniques.

Employment – This class provides support and assistance as members see employment. Members can get help with locating hot job leads, resume help, interview tips and much more. Individual assistance is available as needed.

Fashion 101 – This group emphasizes proper attire for various events including casual, formal, and professional attire.
